New Advertisements.

SEVERAL Chimnies having taken Fire since the late cool Weather set in, the FIRE-MASTERS are sorry there should be so much Reason to censure the Inhabitants of this Town, for their shameful Inattention in a Matter which so greatly concerns the Properties, and, it may be, the Lives of the People here.——It is therefore hoped, that all Landlords as well as Masters of Families, will immediately have their Chimnies well cleaned of Soot, and take Care that they be carefully swept, ONCE every Fortnight, or Three Weeks at fartheſt; for no Excuſe will be accepted in Abatement of the Penalty which the Law has impoſed againſt all Defaulters in this Way. Moreover, it is expected, and will be inſiſted on, that all thoſe Chimnies, the Vents of which are ſo narrow, as not to admit a Sweeper, ſhould be pulled down, and properly rebuilt.

Were People to conſider, how little Engines can avail in Caſe a Fire ſhould happen when the Wind is high, they certainly would be careful to prevent Accidents of this Sort, as far as might be in their Power; for even allowing they had little or no Property of their own to loſe, yet the Duty they owe to their Neighbour, and the Community in general, ought to induce them to guard againſt ſuch diſtreſſing Caſualties, whereby Numbers might be involved in Ruin ——Further, Joiners, Houſe-Carpenters, Cabinet-Markers, and others who work in Wood, are hereby cautioned to clear their Shops of Shavings every Evening, and not to allow any Perſon to work either by Fire or Candle-Light, after Dark; for this Town has been often endangered by theſe Means, and almoſt one Half of it was conſumed even in the Middle of the Day, within our own Memory, by making a Fire too near Shavings and other very combuſtible Materials.

Charles-Town, September 28, 1772.

Charles-Town, July 14, 1772.

THE Subſcriber is much obliged to his planting Friends, who, by landing their Crops at his Wharf for three Years paſt, have thereby introduced it to Buſineſs.—He acted as Factor during that Time, purely to prevent his Friends being Sufferers by their intended Kindneſs to him, as it was very induſtriouſly inſinuated, that Rice would not ſell at his Wharf: But as he is now well convinced, and flatters himſelf all his Friends are fully ſo too, that their Crops, landed in large or ſmall Parcels, will ſell altogether as well at his Wharf, as at any other in Charles-Town; and that any Gentlemen, principally concerned in the Factorage Way, will now have no Objection to receive and ſell Rice or Indico landed thereat: He therefore chooſes to decline that Buſineſs, finding it more than he is able to go through. He hopes his good Friends will ſtill land their Crops at his Wharf, where they may depend he ſhall take Care HIMSELF that their Boats have all poſſible Diſpatch.

As to the Safety and Conveniency of his Docks and Stores, he is ſure there are none preferable to them in Town in thoſe Reſpects, and few (if any) Barns in the Country are cooler and more ſecure from Fire; and it is almoſt impoſſible for a Barrel of Rice to be ſtolen in landing or ſhipping at his Wharf. Such Gentlemen as uſe his Wharf conſtantly, may depend on never wanting Storage whenever they do not like the going Price:—No prudent Planter but muſt be convinced, that this is a Matter of the utmoſt Conſequence to him, as many, for theſe three Years paſt, have had their Crops (when landed in Town) diſpoſed of very much againſt their own Inclinations and Judgments, merely for Want of Storage; and this he is ſure has been the Caſe, particularly this Year ſeveral Times, notwithſtanding the Shortneſs of the Crop.

Meſſrs. GIBBES & HORT,

Who have had long Experience in the FACTORAGE BUSINESS in all its Branches, and confine themſelves to that only, have taken the Charge of his Scales, and will tranſact their Buſineſs on his Wharf.—To theſe Gentlemen he begs Leave to recommend ſuch of his Friends who are not otherwiſe engaged.

Chriſtopher Gadſden.

N. B. Any Gentlemen in Trade may depend on not wanting STORAGE for ſuch Parcels of Rice as they purchaſe at his Wharf.

GIBBES & HORT,

ACQUAINT THEIR FRIENDS,

THAT THEY CONTINUE THE

Factorage Buſineſs in all its Branches,

(ON THE USUAL TERMS)

AND, for the Convenience of good Storage, will tranſact it on Captain GADSDEN's WHARF; where they deſire ſuch of their Friends, as it may be agreeable to, will order the Goods they intend to favour them with, being convinced, that they will ſell as well there, as at any other Place in CHARLES-TOWN.——Conſtant Attendance will alſo be given at their other Compting-Houſe on the BAY.

Their Friends will be ſupplied with proper Boats agreeable to their Orders: And they hope to merit a Continuance of their Favours, by a ſteady Attention to their Employers Intereſt, eſpecially as they are determined to confine themſelves to the Factorage Buſineſs only.—And they aſſure their Friends, that they are not in any Wiſe intereſted in Captain GADSDEN's Stores; ſo that whenever they ſhall think it neceſſary to ſtore for a better Market, it muſt be SOLELY with a View to their Friends Intereſt.

N. B. WANTED, to attend on the ſaid Wharf, a Perſon well qualified and recommended.

To the INHABITANTS, Well-Wishers of the Province of South-Carolina.

I Am convinced, from the firſt Beginning of my Cultivation of a Vineyard, that Culture is an Art, and if the Syſtem of Art is not followed, nothing can be expected from the Labourer in this Culture.

Let all the Vineyardſmen, or Agriculturers in that Branch, come into SOUTH-CAROLINA for that Purpoſe, and plant in all the different Ways of Europe, Aſia, and Africa, I will venture to affirm, upon their Principles they never can ſucceed.—Of this I am plainly convinced from Twenty-two Years Experience; being perfectly acquainted with all thoſe ſeveral Ways: From having practiſed them, I have been neceſſarily led to Art, viz.—to the Conſiderations of the Climate and Seaſon; the Analyſis of the Soil, and Obſervation of the luxurious Vegetation; and, by finding Means to oppoſe all Inconveniences, I have brought this Culture to the higheſt Perfection—and willing to convince thoſe of Folly, who, for no other Reaſon than that of, omne Simile appetit ſuum Simile, exalt preſumptuous Ignorants to the Pre-eminence of Merit; and moreover, to inſtruct all my Fellow-Inhabitants in ſuch Culture, at my own Expence,

I went about three Years ago to one John W-g—r, in order to have from him the Leaſe of a Lot on the Green, for no other Purpoſe than to plant it for a Model, and a viſible Object for Lectures and Diſſertations:—This Man generouſly refuſed any Conſideration for Rent, and ſaid he was willing to contribute to ſo good a Purpoſe—gave it me, inſiſting I would make what Uſe I pleaſed with it, during my Life, and declared he would ſign me a Leaſe, only obliging me to pay the Taxes.—Such Favour, gave me ſuch an Opinion of him, that I took him for an honeſt Man; nay, a generous, public ſpirited Man; and imprudently, without conſidering that he might have acted ab Origine, viz. RARELY, upon bona Fide, I went and fenced in the Lot, prepared it, manured, planted, framed the Vineyard, and brought it to high Perfection, at the Expence of about Fourteen Hundred Pounds: But the ſaid W-g—r, notwithſtanding his above Promiſes, &c. has now courageouſly ſold it to one H——N, and would make believe, that he has a Reaſon for ſo doing, baſely forging a falſe Pretext. By this Proceeding, after ſuch an Expence, it renders me unable to tranſplant it by myſelf.—Encouraged by the Approbation of many Gentlemen of Honour and good Judgment, who have ſeen the Vineyard, and approved of ſuch a Method, and look upon it as the beſt that can be followed,

The Subſcriber propoſes a Society of Agriculture, conſiſting of Twelve Members, each providing a good Negro-Fellow, and every Two Members a young Wench:—A very ſmall Advance in Money will be ſufficient for Buildings, Tools, &c. as Five Hundred Plants (producing in full) with above a Thouſand (producing the next Year) and as many as ſhall be required to complete a Vineyard of Twenty-four Acres, will be made a Preſent of for the Encouragement of the Society;—alſo a mountainous Tract, proper for all Cultures, will be given for the Uſe of the Society, for the whole Time it ſhall continue.

I have only to mention, that a great B. who has approved of the Proceedings of W-g—r, only in order to prove that he is a great B. may attempt to diſcourage ſuch Beginning; but let us remember, that God deduxit Panem de Terra, & Vinum Letificans cor Hominis, in hoc dilatatum eſt cor meum dilatamini & vos, and I am ſure we ſhall enjoy, with great Advantage, the agreeable Fruits of ſuch Culture, in ſpite of all the perfidious and baſe Oppoſers.—I have good Authority for what I ſay, and Providence always bleſſes what it has ordered—ſo, ſi Deus pro nobis quis contra vos.

SUBSCRIPTIONS are taken in at the Printing-Office on the Bay, near the Exchange, and at the Subſcriber's Houſe in King-Street.

LEWIS MOTTET.

Alexander Alexander

PROPOSES to teach the Art of SURVEYING in the Evenings, the enſuing FALL and WINTER, provided he can get a ſufficient Number of young Gentlemen engaged, to make it worth his While: And having furniſhed himſelf with a CIRCUMFERENTOR and CHAIN, he intends to accompany his Pupils to the Fields and Woods near Town, at convenient Times, in order to inſtruct them in the Practice.

As Lands in this Province daily increaſe in Value, the Utility of this Art muſt encreaſe in Proportion.—The Advantages of an accurate Acquaintance with it, muſt be very apparent to theſe Gentlemen in particular, who are poſſeſſed of landed Property in the Country, as it might, at any Time, give them a ſatisfactory Knowledge of the exact Dimenſions of their own Poſſeſſions; might be a Source of rational Amuſement in their leiſure Hours; and might enable them to be ſerviceable to their Friends and Neighbours.

 He has good Accommodations for Boarders, who may be inſtructed in the above Branch, and in any other he profeſſes to teach, without any additional Expence.

LONDON, AUGUST 1.

AN expreſs was diſpatched to Lord Chatham about three weeks ago, intimating that a Great Perſon deſired to ſee him; to which his Lordſhip is ſaid to have replied,—"That he was ready at all times to obey the commands "of that Perſonage, but that he knew his preſence at "this time was unneceſſary, for he could be of no ſer-"vice in the preſent poſture of affairs."

On Wedneſday the Directors of the Eaſt-India Company, appointed General Monckton and Andrew Stuart, Eſq; Supervifors; and Lauchlin Macleán and —— Weir, Eſqrs. Comptrollers in India.

A young lady in the neighbourhood of the Royal Exchange, went off with a waiter at a coffee-houſe in the ſame neighbourhood laſt Monday evening. It is remarkable, her father who was a widower, married his maid the very next morning, in order to be revenged of his daughter.

The Lady who is gone off with the ſon of a great officer in Chancery, is ſaid to be worth 70,000 l. in her own poſſeſſion.

They write from Breſt, that diſpatches had juſt been ſent off to the Governors of the French Weſt-India Iſlands containing ſome freſh inſtructions concerning a regulation of Trade between the ſubjects of their Britannic and Moſt Chriſtian Majeſties in America.

Extract of a letter from Zell. July 12.

"I have been abſent ſeveral days with my Royal Miſtreſs Queen Carolina Matilda of Denmark, who, to expel all gloomy and melancholy thoughts, has been adviſed to viſit Statzatker, and other places in this principality, worthy her notice. At each town ſhe arrived at, every mark of honour was ſhewn her. Modeſt deportment, joined with her affable and courteous behaviour, gained her the eſteem of all ranks of people."

WARSAW, July 15. The Auſtrians have a great deſire to take poſſeſſion of Leopold, but the Ruſſians are not diſpoſed to quit that place 'till the peace is concluded. It is aſſured that a great number of Auſtrian troops have entered this kingdom in order to take poſſeſſion of Kiminiec.

By the laſt letters from Cracow, dated the 12th of this month, we learn, that every thing remains as before with regard to the fortreſs of Tyniec, and that General Suwarrow had battered it again on the 10th. Theſe advices confirm, that the Auſtrians had entered that fortreſs unknown to the Ruſſians, which has in ſome meaſure leſſened the good underſtanding that ſubſiſted between the two parties. They add, that General Suwarrow had received orders to give up the command of his troops to General Romanius, and it is preſumed that General Althan will alſo be relieved by another Auſtrian General.

LONDON, AUGUST 3.

His Majeſty, it is ſaid, has ſignified his pleaſure, that neither the Firſt Lord of the Treaſury, nor the two Secretaries of State, do go to their reſpective country ſeats for ſome days.

The important circumſtance of the French having quitted the iſland of Mauritius, is confirmed by the foreign mails which arrived on Friday.

The following intelligence was yeſterday morning received by a merchant of this city from his correſpondent at the Hague:—"At a full aſſembly of the Senate, orders were given for the fleet of ſix men of war lying in the port of Harlem, to ſail with all poſſible diſpatch for the Weſt-Indies."

It is generally believed that the Ruſſians are improving upon the politicks of our polite neighbours; for it is well known the French never allow their enemies a breathing time, but in order either to recover their own breath, or meditate attacks that amply repay them for every ſuch indulgence.

It is thought the rivalſhip between the Lords North, and Hillſborough, will very ſpeedily operate to the benefit of national concerns; for as both have an unconquerable averſion to a brother near the throne, one, if not both, muſt be removed, to re-eſtabliſh peace and concord in the cabinet.

A certain great company, ſays a correſpondent, have proved themſelves very Machiavels in the adminiſtration of their affairs; the great officers now preparing to embark for the Eaſt being only ſo many puppets, that are to be taught to dance immediately on their arrival at the deſtined ſpot, to the wires of ſtill ſuperior officers, while thoſe again are played off with equal quality by the ſeveral artificers that have been concerned in their formation.

AUGUST 4.

At the Court at St. James's, the 31ſt day of July, 1772.

Preſent, The KING's moſt excellent Majeſty in council.

His Majeſty in council was this day pleaſed to order, that the Parliament, which ſtands prorogued to the 11th of Auguſt next, ſhould be further prorogued to the 19th day of September following.

Some letters from the Hague mention, that a treaty, which has been long depending between the ſtates of Holland and the court of Berlin, is at laſt ſigned by both parties.

The laſt letters from Hanover adviſe, that the Queen Carolina Matilda of Denmark celebrated her birth-day the 22d inſtant, with great ſplendour; on which occaſion there was an opera at Gorde, by performers which were ſent for from Hamburgh. Theſe letters add, that the Princeſs has at laſt pitched upon Zell for her reſidence during the winter, and that the caſtle there is fitting up for her reception.

By accounts from the Archipelago we hear, that the iſland of Meteline, and many of the neighbouring iſlands, have ſuffered conſiderably by ſeveral ſhocks of an earthquake, in which above a thouſand houſes have been deſtroyed, and many people buried in the ruins.

Joſhua Richardſon, Eſq; who for a long time was impriſoned at Boſton, for the ſuppoſed murder of one of the mob in Preſton's time, is appointed Marſhal of the Court of Vice Admiralty there, in the room of Charles Paxton, Eſq; reſigned.

AUGUST 5.

Letters from Warſaw, dated July 15, ſays, "The Confederates who are in Czenſtochau have reſolved, in imitation of thoſe at Tyniec, not to deliver up the place to the Ruſſians, but only to the King; on which account they have ſent two deputies hither. We are impatient to ſee the iſſue of this affair. It is given out that a freſh body of Auſtrian troops are impatient to take poſſeſſion of Kiminiec. The Auſtrians had a mind to poſſeſs themſelves of Lemberg; but the Ruſſians will not give up that place to them till after the peace is concluded. The former took great pains to get at the archives which the Confederacy collected during the troubles in Poland; but General Viomeſnil took them away with him when he returned to France. The Confederates ſeized one Paſakowſki, within eight miles of Cracovia, who was coming hereto ſurrender himſelf to the King."

Letters from Cracow mention that a corps of 2000 Auſtrian troops had broke through the line of the Ruſſians, and made themſelves maſters of Tyniec, and that the Ruſſian garriſon was obliged to leave the place; the conſequence of which are not yet known.

By accounts from Bucharеſt we hear that Iſmael Effendi, who was appointed by the Porte to be one of the Plenipotentaries at the enſuing congreſs, has obtained his diſmiſſion from that high truſt, his Excellency having pleaded his inexperience and incapacity as an excuſe for this very extraordinary requeſt.

Theſe accounts add, that Admiral Knowles had been lately to inſpect the building of ſome ſhips of war, on a new conſtruction, at Kiliac Nova, a port on the Black ſea.

The eſtabliſhment formed by the Board of the City of Paris, to recover perſons that have been drowned, continues to meet with the greateſt ſucceſs. The 18th inſtant a boy, named Serf, belonging to the office of the Duke of Orleans, aged about ſeventeen, ſunk to the bottom in a pond where he was bathing, and continued there a full quarter of an hour. When he was brought out, he was to all appearance dead; but, after rubbing, chafing him, &c. for ſeveral hours, he recovered. The next day a like accident happened to a meſſer in this city, named Bray. He had no ſigns of life when taken out of the water, but on meeting with aſſiſtance, as in the above caſe, he came to his ſenſes in an hour and an half, and was afterwards able to walk home.

We hear from Dublin, that Mr. Cooke, a young gentleman of Hereford, private ſecretary to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, was lately married there to the daughter of the Right Honourable Lady Dyſart. The young lady eſcaped from a two-pair-of-ſtairs window in her mother's houſe; but we hear that Lady Dyſart has been ſince reconciled to the match, through the meditation of the Lord Lieutenant. The young lady has 12,000 l. at her own diſpoſal, beſides great expectations.

Extract of a Letter from Algiers, June 21.

"We have been much ſurpriſed with an edict publiſhed by the Dey on the 16th inſtant, commanding that all the Spaniards in Algiers ſhould be put into cloſe confinement. The reaſon of this extraordinary command is ſome advice that the Dey pretends to have received, of an intention of the court of Spain to attack this capital. Diſpatches have been ſent to Madrid to inquire whether there is any truth in the report of ſuch an intention; and we hope, when an anſwer arrives, that the poor Spaniards will gain their enlargements."

ROME, (Italy) July 11. We juſt now hear of a very cruel deed, which hath been perpetrated at Striola, in the neighbourhood of Oſimo. A perſon who had retired thither to avoid proſecution for ſome miſdemeanors, became enamoured of a young lady of the family of Lancelotti, and wanted to marry her; but the parents oppoſed it ſo ſtrongly that he could not ſucceed. His paſſion increaſing more and more, he took the ſtrange reſolution to murder the object of it, as he could not be revenged on her parents. For this purpoſe he waited her return from church, and fired a piſtol at her, but miſſed his aim. The brother of the lady perceiving the aſſaſſin, ran to her aſſiſtance, which obliged the aſſaſſin to retire into a neighbouring houſe, from whence (being provided with piſtols) he was ſo daring as to fire at both brother and ſiſter, and ſhot the brother dead on the ſpot.

LONDON, AUGUST 6.

In a commiſſion prepared, and which paſſed the Great Seal yeſterday for the proroguing the Parliament, his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Cumberland is named one of the Lords Commiſſioners. Commiſſions are alſo directed to the Archbiſhops of Canterbury and York, to prorogue both houſes of Convocation to Wedneſday the 30th of September next.

On Monday evening the Earl of Harcourt arrived in town from his Ambaſſy at the court of France; on Tueſday he waited on his Majeſty at Kew; and yeſterday was preſent at the levee at St. James's.

It is ſaid Mr. Fordyce has wrote to his friends in England to lay in his pretenſions at the India-Houſe to be joined in the commiſſion with Mr. Maclane; as he can plead equal ruin, he has an equal pretence to a ſhare of that moſt lucrative employment of a Superviſor.

The ſquabbles of a certain company become every day ſo warm and ſo complicate, that it is imagined the intended appointments will not be ſettled before the ſeaſon is too far advanced for thoſe ſent over to enter on buſineſs for twelve months at leaſt.

They write from Paris, that the celebrated marine aſtronomer, M. L'Abbe Rocquene, who made a voyage round the world in 1767, has received orders to prepare for a ſecond adventure, and a ſmall ſquadron is fitting at Breſt for that purpoſe.

It is a notorious fact, that there are but twelve crowned heads in all Chriſtendom, and that five of thoſe crowned heads are generally ſuppoſed to be, in their intellectual capacities, ſcarcely one remove from natural ideots; that four of thoſe twelve are locally inſignificant, and of the remaining tierce-major royal, the firſt hath as yet no decided character; the ſecond is not entirely free from the black charge of parricidal blood; and the third, by one of his own confeſſedly injured ſubjects, is publicly and emphatically ſtiled, "The cartouche of Kings!"

A friend to the Engliſh conſtitution begs you will inform the public, that the Pretender at Rome is lately married to the Princeſs of Stolberg, a near relation to Lord Bruce; who, with the pompous aid of a new-made Earl, of a low French family, who lives near Sarum, is now a champion for the independency of the county of Wilts.

Letters from Paris, dated July 24, ſay, "yeſterday at ſix o'clock in the evening, a furious riot happened at the Bicetre priſon. The horſe and foot guards went thither to put a ſtop to the diſturbance, but the priſoners were ſo outrageous that the guards were obliged to fire, and ſome of the priſoners who attempted to make their eſcape were killed."

A letter from Peterſburgh, dated the 15th of July, ſays, "the 28th of laſt month the Britiſh Miniſter, Mr. Gunning, had the honour of being called to a private audience of her Imperial Majeſty, at her country houſe at Saras-Rogeſelo."

To the INHABITANTS

Well-Wishers of the Province of South-Carolina.

I Am confident, from the firſt Eſſays I made on my Colleaſon of a Vineyard, that Culture is an Art, and if the Syſtem of Virgil were followed, nothing can be expected from the Labourer in this Colony.

Let all the Vineyardiners, or Agriculturers in that Branch, come into SOUTH-CAROLINA for that Purpoſe, and plant it all the different Ways of Europe, Aſia, and Africa. I will venture to aſſure, upon their Principles they never can ſucceed.—Of this I am plainly convinced from Twenty-four Years Experience; being perfectly acquainted with all thoſe ſeveral Ways; From having practiſed them. I have long ſucceſſfully led to Art, and—the Circumſtances of the Climate and Soil; the Analyſis of the Soil, and Obſervation of the luxurious Vegetation; and, by finding Means to oppoſe all Inconveniences, I have brought this Culture to the higheſt Perfection—and willing to convince thoſe of Folly, who, for no other Reaſon than that of, omne Ignotum pro Magnifico, envy, proſtituteleſs Ignorants to the Pre-eminence of Many; and moreover, to inſtruct all my Fellow-Inhabitants in ſuch Culture, at my own Expence,

I went about three Yeſterdays to one John H—g—r, in order, as I have from him the Loan of a Lot on the Green, for no other Purpoſe than to plant it for a Model, and a viſible Object for Cavillers and Diſſertations:—This Man generouſly refuſed any Conſideration for Rent, and ſaid he was willing to contribute all to ſuch a Purpoſe—gave it me, inſiſting I would make what Uſe I pleaſed with it, during my Life, and declared he would ſave me a Leaſe, only obliging me to pay the Taxes.—Such Favour, gave me ſome an Opinion of him, that I took him for an honeſt Man; nay, a generous, public ſpirited Man; and ingenuouſly, without conſidering that he might have acted ab Origine, viz. raſhly, upon mere Hear ſay, I went and fenced in the Lot, prepared it, manured, planted, trained the Vineyards and brought it to high Perfection, at the Expence of about Four-teen Hundred Pounds: But the firſt H—g—r, notwithſtanding his above Promiſe, &c. has now courageouſly ſold it to one H——n, and would make believe, that he has a Reaſon for ſo doing, baſely forging a falſe Pretence. By this Proceeding, after ſuch an Expence, it renders me unable to tranſplant it by myſelf.—Encouraged by the Approbation of many Gentlemen of Honour and good Judgment, who have ſeen the Vineyard, and approved of ſuch a Method, and look upon it as the beſt that can be followed.

The Subſcriber propoſes a Society of Agriculture, conſiſting of Twelve Members, each providing a good Negro-Fellow, and every Two Members a young Wench:—A very ſmall Advance in Money will be ſufficient for Buildings, Tools, &c. as Five Hundred Plants (producing in full) with above a Thouſand (producing the next Year) and as many as ſhall be required to complete a Vineyard of Twenty-four Acres, will be made a Preſent of for the Encouragement of the Society;—alſo a mountainous Tract, proper for all Cultures, will be given for the Uſe of the Society, for the whole Time it ſhall continue.

I have only to mention, that a great B. who has approved of the Proceedings of H—g—r, only in order to prove that he is a great B. may attempte to diſcourage ſuch Beginnings; but let us remember, that God dedavit Fuoum de Terra, & Finum Letificat Cor Hominis, in hoc dilatatum eſt cor meum dilatamini & vos, and I am ſure we ſhall enjoy, with great Advantage, the agreeable Fruits of ſuch Culture, in ſpite of all the perfidious and baſe Oppoſers.—I have good Authority for what I ſay, and Providence always bleſſes what is well ordered—ſo, A Deus pro Indigenis cæpta cave.

Subſcriptions are taken in at the Printing-Office on the Bay, and at Mr. Woodrooffe's, and at the Subſcriber's Houſe in King-Street.

LONDON, AUGUST 1.

AN expreſs was diſpatched to Lord Chatham about three weeks ago, intimating that a Great Perſon deſired to ſee him; to which his Lordſhip is ſaid to have replied,—"That he was ready at all times to obey the commands "of that Perſonage, but that he knew his preſence at "this time was unneceſſary, for he could be of no ſer-"vice in the preſent poſture of affairs."

On Wedneſday the Directors of the Eaſt-India Company, appointed General Monckton and Andrew Stuart, Eſq; Supervifors; and Lauchlan Maclean and —— Weir, Eſqrs. Comptrollers in India.

A young lady in the neighbourhood of the Royal Exchange, went off with a waiter at a coffee-houſe in the ſame neighbourhood laſt Monday evening. It is remarkable, her father who was a widower, married his maid the very next morning, in order to be revenged of his daughter.

The Lady who is gone off with the ſon of a great officer in Chancery, is ſaid to be worth 70,000 l. in her own poſſeſſion.

They write from Breſt, that diſpatches had juſt been ſent off to the Governors of the French Weſt-India Iſlands containing ſome freſh inſtructions concerning a regulation of Trade between the ſubjects of their Britannic and Moſt Chriſtian Majeſties in America.

Extract of a letter from Zell, July 12.

"I have been abſent ſeveral days with my Royal Miſtreſs Queen Carolina Matilda of Denmark, who, to expel all gloomy and melancholy thoughts, has been adviſed to viſit Statzatker, and other places in this principality, worthy her notice. At each town ſhe arrived at, every mark of honour was ſhewn her. Modeſt deportment, joined with her affable and courteous behaviour, gained her the eſteem of all ranks of people."

WARSAW, July 15. The Auſtrians have a great deſire to take poſſeſſion of Leopold, but the Ruſſians are not diſpoſed to quit that place 'till the peace is concluded. It is aſſured that a great number of Auſtrian troops have entered this kingdom in order to take poſſeſſion of Kiminiec.

By the laſt letters from Cracow, dated the 12th of this month, we learn, that every thing remains as before with regard to the fortreſs of Tyniec, and that General Suwarrow had battered it again on the 10th. Theſe advices confirm, that the Auſtrians had entered that fortreſs unknown to the Ruſſians, which has in ſome meaſure leſſened the good underſtanding that ſubſiſted between the two parties. They add, that General Suwarrow had received orders to give up the command of his troops to General Romanius, and it is preſumed that General Althan will alſo be relieved by another Auſtrian General.

LONDON, AUGUST 3.

His Majeſty, it is ſaid, has ſignified his pleaſure, that neither the Firſt Lord of the Treaſury, nor the two Secretaries of State, do go to their reſpective country ſeats for ſome days.

The important circumſtance of the French having quitted the iſland of Mauritius, is confirmed by the foreign mails which arrived on Friday.

The following intelligence was yeſterday morning received by a merchant of this city from his correſpondent at the Hague:—"At a full aſſembly of the Senate, orders were given for the fleet of ſix men of war lying in the port of Harlem, to ſail with all poſſible diſpatch for the Weſt-Indies."

It is generally believed that the Ruſſians are improving upon the politicks of our polite neighbours; for it is well known the French never allow their enemies a breathing time, but in order either to recover their own breath, or meditate attacks that amply repay them for every ſuch indulgence.

It is thought the rivalſhip between the Lords North, and Hillſborough, will very ſpeedily operate to the benefit of national concerns; for as both have an unconquerable averſion to a brother near the throne, one, if not both, muſt be removed, to re-eſtabliſh peace and concord in the cabinet.

A certain great company, ſays a correſpondent, have proved themſelves very Machiavels in the adminiſtration of their affairs; the great officers now preparing to embark for the Eaſt being only ſo many puppets, that are to be taught to dance immediately on their arrival at the deſtined ſpot, to the wires of ſtill ſuperior officers, while thoſe again are played off with equal quality by the ſeveral artificers that have been concerned in their formation.

AUGUST 4.

At the Court at St. James's, the 31*ſt day of July*, 1772.

Preſent, The KING's moſt excellent Majeſty in council.

His Majeſty in council was this day pleaſed to order, that the Parliament, which ſtands prorogued to the 11th of Auguſt next, ſhould be further prorogued to the 19th day of September following.

Some letters from the Hague mention, that a treaty, which has been long depending between the ſtates of Holland and the court of Berlin, is at laſt ſigned by both parties.

The laſt letters from Hanover adviſe, that the Queen Carolina Matilda of Denmark celebrated her birth-day the 22d inſtant, with great ſplendour; on which occaſion there was an opera at Gorde, by performers which were ſent for from Hamburgh. Theſe letters add, that the Princeſs has at laſt pitched upon Zell for her reſidence during the winter, and that the caſtle there is fitting up for her reception.

By accounts from the Archipelago we hear, that the iſland of Meteline, and many of the neighbouring iſlands, have ſuffered conſiderably by ſeveral ſhocks of an earthquake, in which above a thouſand houſes have been deſtroyed, and many people buried in the ruins.

Joſhua Richardſon, Eſq; who for a long time was impriſoned at Boſton, for the ſuppoſed murder of one of the mob in Preſton's time, is appointed Marſhal of the Court of Vice Admiralty there, in the room of Charles Paxton, Eſq; reſigned.

AUGUST 5.

Letters from Warſaw, dated July 15, ſays, "The Confederates who are in Czenſtochau have reſolved, in imitation of thoſe at Tyniec, not to deliver up the place to the Ruſſians, but only to the King; on which account they have ſent two deputies hither. We are impatient to ſee the iſſue of this affair. It is given out that a freſh body of Auſtrian troops are impatient to take poſſeſſion of Kaminiec. The Auſtrians had a mind to poſſeſs themſelves of Lemberg; but the Ruſſians will not give up that place to them till after the peace is concluded. The former took great pains to get at the archives which the Confederacy collected during the troubles in Poland; but General Viomeſnil took them away with him when he returned to France. The Confederates ſeized one Paſekowſki, within eight miles of Cracovia, who was coming here to ſurrender himſelf to the King."

Letters from Cracow mention that a corps of 2000 Auſtrian troops had broke through the line of the Ruſſians, and made themſelves maſters of Tyniec, and that the Ruſſian garriſon was obliged to leave the place; the conſequence of which are not yet known.

By accounts from Bucharеſt we hear that Iſmael Effendi, who was appointed by the Porte to be one of the Plenipotentaries at the enſuing congreſs, has obtained his diſmiſſion from that high truſt, his Excellency having pleaded his inexperience and incapacity as an excuſe for this very extraordinary requeſt.

Theſe accounts add, that Admiral Knowles had been lately to inſpect the building of ſome ſhips of war, on a new conſtruction, at Kiliac Nova, a port on the Black ſea.

The eſtabliſhment formed by the Board of the City of Paris, to recover perſons that have been drowned, continues to meet with the greateſt ſucceſs. The 18th inſtant a boy, named Serf, belonging to the office of the Duke of Orleans, aged about ſeventeen, ſunk to the bottom in a pond where he was bathing, and continued there a full quarter of an hour. When he was brought out, he was to all appearance dead; but, after rubbing, chafing him, &c. for ſeveral hours, he recovered. The next day a like accident happened to a mercer in this city, named Bray. He had no ſigns of life when taken out of the water, but on meeting with aſſiſtance, as in the above caſe, he came to his ſenſes in an hour and an half, and was afterwards able to walk home.

We hear from Dublin, that Mr. Cooke, a young gentleman of Hereford, private ſecretary to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, was lately married there to the daughter of the Right Honourable Lady Dyſart. The young lady eſcaped from a two-pair-of-ſtairs window in her mother's houſe; but we hear that Lady Dyſart has been ſince reconciled to the match, through the meditation of the Lord Lieutenant. The young lady has 12,000 l. at her own diſpoſal, beſides great expectations.

Extract of a Letter from Algiers, June 22.

"We have been much ſurpriſed with an edict publiſhed by the Dey on the 16th inſtant, commanding that all the Spaniards in Algiers ſhould be put into cloſe confinement. The reaſon of this extraordinary command is ſome advice that the Dey pretends to have received, of an intention of the court of Spain to attack this capital. Diſpatches have been ſent to Madrid to inquire whether there is any truth in the report of ſuch an intention; and we hope, when an anſwer arrives, that the poor Spaniards will gain their enlargements."

ROME, (Italy) July 11. We juſt now hear of a very cruel deed, which hath been perpetrated at Staffola, in the neighbourhood of Oſimo. A perſon who had retired thither to avoid proſecution for ſome miſdemeanors, became enamoured of a young lady of the family of Lancelotti, and wanted to marry her; but the parents oppoſed it ſo ſtrongly that he could not ſucceed. His paſſion increaſing more and more, he took the ſtrange reſolution to murder the object of it, as he could not be revenged on her parents. For this purpoſe he waited her return from church, and fired a piſtol at her, but miſſed his aim. The brother of the lady perceiving the affair, ran to her aſſiſtance, which obliged the aſſaſſin to retire into a neighbouring houſe, from whence (being provided with piſtols) he was ſo daring as to fire at both brother and ſiſter, and ſhot the brother dead on the ſpot.

LONDON, AUGUST 6.

In a commiſſion prepared, and which paſſed the Great Seal yeſterday for the proroguing the Parliament, his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Cumberland is named one of the Lords Commiſſioners. Commiſſions are alſo directed to the Archbiſhops of Canterbury and York, to prorogue both houſes of Convocation to Wedneſday the 30th of September next.

On Monday evening the Earl of Harcourt arrived in town from his Embaſſy at the court of France; on Tueſday he waited on his Majeſty at Kew; and yeſterday was preſent at the levee at St. James's.

It is ſaid Mr. Fordyce has wrote to his friends in England to lay in his pretenſions at the India-Houſe to be joined in the commiſſion with Mr. Maclane; as he can plead equal ruin, he has an equal pretence to a ſhare of that moſt lucrative employment of a Superyiſor.

The ſquabbles of a certain company become every day ſo warm and ſo complicate, that it is imagined the intended appointments will not be ſettled before the ſeaſon is too far advanced for thoſe ſent over to enter on buſineſs for twelve months at leaſt.

They write from Paris, that the celebrated marine aſtronomer, M. L'Abbe Rocquene, who made a voyage round the world in 1767, has received orders to prepare for a ſecond adventure, and a ſmall ſquadron is fitting at Breſt for that purpoſe.

It is a notorious fact, that there are but twelve crowned heads in all Chriſtendom, and that five of thoſe crowned heads are generally ſuppoſed to be, in their intellectual capacities, ſcarcely one remove from natural ideots; that four of thoſe twelve are locally inſignificant, and of the remaining tierce-major royal, the firſt hath as yet no decided character; the ſecond is not entirely free from the black charge of parricidal blood; and the third, by one of his own confeſſedly injured ſubjects, is publicly and emphatically ſtiled, "The cartouche of Kings!"

A friend to the Engliſh conſtitution begs you will inform the public, that the Pretender at Rome is lately married to the Princeſs of Stolberg, a near relation to Lord Bruce; who, with the pompous aid of a new-made Earl, of a low French family, who lives near Sarum, is now a champion for the independency of the county of Wilts.

Letters from Paris, dated July 24, ſay, "yeſterday at ſix o'clock in the evening, a furious riot happened at the Bicetre priſon. The horſe and foot guards went thither to put a ſtop to the diſturbance, but the priſoners were ſo outrageous that the guards were obliged to fire, and ſome of the priſoners who attempted to make their eſcape were killed."

A letter from Peterſburgh, dated the 15th of July, ſays, "the 28th of laſt month the Britiſh Miniſter, Mr. Gunning, had the honour of being called to a private audience of her Imperial Majeſty, at her country houſe at Saras-Rogeſelo."

Advices are received from Paris, that the French have ſuſtained a loſs of eight men of war, ſeveral tranſports, and upwards of 2000 ſeamen, by the hurricane at the Iſle of Bourbon, in the Eaſt-Indies, in April laſt.

The Lord Chancellor had on Tueſday 71 petitions to hear in Chancery, 23 in Lunatics, and 65 in Bankrupts; the greateſt number ever known after Trinity term.

Tueſday a ſpecial commiſſion paſſed the ſeal, empowering certain perſons named therein to enquire into, and take poſſeſſion of the lands, meſſuages, tenements, &c. of the late Mrs. Dorothy, Vernon, widow, deceaſed, in the city and county of Glouceſter, in behalf of the Crown, ſhe dying without heirs, a thing which very rarely happens.

AUGUST 7.

We are aſſured that the Spaniſh Ambaſſador, Prince Maſſerano, will ſet off for Paris the 14th or 15th inſtant, at fartheſt.

We hear that Thomas Wroughton, his Majeſty's Ambaſſador at the court of Warſaw, has received letters of recal.

On Wedneſday Montagu Bourgoyne, Eſq; kiſſed his Majeſty's hand at St. James's on being appointed Chamberlain of his Majeſty's Exchequer, in the room of Sir John Miller, Baronet, deceaſed.

On Wedneſday his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Glouceſter ſet off with a grand retinue for the German Spa.

The Earl of Holderneſſe is appointed Governor to Prince William Henry and Prince Edward, in the ſame manner as to the Prince of Wales and the Biſhop of Oſnaburgh; the other part of the houſhold of the two former Princes is not yet declared.

A treaty, offenſive and defenſive, is juſt concluded between the French, Sardinians, Genoeſe, Malteſe, Venetians, and Dutch, in which the original Mediterranean treaty is revived.

On Tueſday ſome diſpatches arrived from Poland, relative to the troubles in that kingdom; ſince which it has been reported, that our court has come to a reſolution to take no part in the diſputes between that kingdom and its powerful neighbours.

A letter from Berlin mentions, that the King has given an order for ſeveral Noblemen and foreign Miniſters to attend him on the 24th of this month; for what purpoſe has not yet tranſpired.

It is now confidently reported, that Lord Hillſborough's reſignation is expected in a few days, as the prodigious emigrations to the Miſſiſippi and the Ohio render the circumſtance of a ſettlement on each of theſe rivers unavoidable. The 20th of the preſent month is the day at preſent fixed for his Lordſhip's journey to Ireland, and it is thought before that time he will give up the American ſecretaryſhip of ſtate.

The reaſons urged by Lord Hillſborough in council, for oppoſing the Miſſiſippi ſcheme, were as follow: Firſt, That the mother country could not, at preſent, ſpare any migration. Secondly, The voyage from Europe there, on account of the difficulty of getting up ſo rapid a river, could not, on an average, be leſs than three months; a circumſtance that muſt greatly impede both the ſale of the produce of that eſtabliſhment, as well as be an inconvenience in its communication with the mother country. And laſtly, That the whole face of the country was ſo ſpread over with plantations, it ſtood in more need of a company of foreſters than a civil eſtabliſhment.

To ſuperſede a commiſſion of bankruptcy, it is abſolutely neceſſary that every creditor who hath proved a debt, ſhall ſign the petition to the Chancellor. A certain creditor, who had proved his debt under the commiſſion againſt Glyn and Halifax, one Mr. Andrew W——— n, has a cuſtom of going once a year from London for about ſix weeks, and in that time not a ſervant knows where to write to him, nor is it known in what part of the world he is, whether in England or abroad; and ſince his proving his debt, he ſet off for this very ſingular journey. This has thus long retarded the expected ſuperſeding of the commiſſion in queſtion; but very happily, by a mere lucky incident, this gentleman has been diſcovered at Portſmouth. He has ſigned the petition, the ſuperſedas is forwarding, and the houſe in conſequence will now ſoon re-open.

They write from Sicily, that an inſurrection had broke out in that iſland, by which many lives were loſt, on account of the advanced price of all ſorts of grain.

By a letter received by the laſt packet from Liſbon, we are credibly informed that Mr. Connell, the Britiſh merchant, remained in priſon when the letter came away, and there was no appearance of his enlargement.

Extract of a Letter from the Hague, July 31.

"According to the laſt letters from Warſaw, the plan for dividing Poland between the courts of Vienna, Peterſbourg and Berlin, is not ſo certain as has been reported. The King of Poland finding the whole affair is likely to be at his expence, is uſing his intereſt with the courts of Verſailles, London and the Hague, to prevent the execution of a plan ſo deſtructive to his intereſt; and it is ſaid that his ſolicitations have met with ſome ſucceſs, ſo that this affair will at leaſt be ſuſpended for ſome time. The laſt letters from Copenhagen adviſe, that the inhababitants of that city inveigh exceedingly againſt the execution of the unfortunate Counts de Struenſee and de Brandt; ſeveral circumſtances having ſince appeared relative to the motives for their proceeding, which render the authors of it more and more odious to the public."

Extract of a Letter from the Viſtula, July 21.

"The kingdom of Poland is almoſt totally ruined; near Warſaw indeed the land is ſown, but from thence to Rawa nothing is to be ſeen but the ruins of villages ſtanding, but not a ſoul in them; the reſt are burnt and deſtroyed, and the people ran away. From Sirad to Sileſia nothing preſents itſelf but a ſcene of devaſtation. That once well cultivated kingdom lies now in ruins, and through the deſtructive conſequences of war, peſtilence, deſertion, &c. the natives of it are diminiſhed to an aſtoniſhing degree."

The following account from Charles de Salis, Eſq; concerning a boy in France, who hath the moſt ſurpriſing faculty of diſcovering water underground, being undoubtedly authentic, the inſerting it cannot but be very agreeable to the public, as it will afford ample ſpeculation for the deepeſt philoſophers.

Extract of a Letter from Charles de Salis, Eſq; at St. Trone, near Marſeilles, to his Brother the Rev. Mr. de Salis, in England, dated June 17, 1772.

"There is a boy here of twelve years of age who has the faculty of diſcovering water under-ground: This gift of his was diſcovered about a year ago in the following manner: He was ſtanding at work by his father, who was digging, and on a ſudden called out, "do not dig too deep, or the water will appear." The man had the curioſity to dig about three feet deep, and found a conſiderable ſpring. This ſingular thing being known in the province, ſeveral people of diſtinction, who wanted water on their eſtates, ſent for him: Amongſt others, Monſieur Borelle ſent for him to an eſtate of his, where, according to tradition, there had been three ſprings. The boy, without heſitation, carried him to every one of them. Monſieur de Bompart, commander of the ſquadron at Toulon, ſent for him to a houſe of his near the town; Monſieur de Bompart was ſo convinced of the boy's ſkill, that he immediately fell to work, and has ſucceeded. At a houſe which the Duke de Villars lived in, ſome of the water-conduits under it were choaked up; and as the direction of them was not known, they, to ſave the expence of taking up the floors, ſent for the boy, who, on being carried to the ſpot, pointed to the place and ſaid, "Here the conduit begins, and goes in ſuch a direction, &c." So much upon the relation of others; now for what I have ſeen myſelf. There was a neighbour of mine, as curious as myſelf, to find out whether this boy had really ſuch a gift. We agreed to put water in a large earthen pan, hermetically covered with another, and then place it in a hole, two feet under ground, in a vineyard that had been lately tilled. In order that nobody ſhould inform of it, at night we dug the hole ourſelves, then covered it over, and ſmoothed the ground for twenty feet round. This we did in two places. The boy arrived next morning, and we took him about the country, to ſhew his ſkill. He went before us alone, with his hands in a ſhort waiſtcoat, and ſtopped ſhort whenever he found water, ſpoke of it, and followed it to the ſpring head. Little by little, we brought him to where the water was hid; and I never was ſo aſtoniſhed in my life, as to ſee him go out of the way, ſtamp upon the ſpot, and ſay, "Here is water here, but it does not run." The earth was removed, and the pan found directly under. We took him by the ſecond place, which he alſo diſcovered, but was angry at being deceived. He then found out a large ſpring by my neighbour's houſe, which he was greatly in want of for an oil-mill he has there."

AUGUST 8.

Letters of credit from the Continent ſay, that notwithſtanding all that has been done, the guards are obliged to patrole the ſtreets of Copenhagen both night and day.

A letter received from Paris ſays, that on a late ſurvey of the iſland of Corſica by the King's engineers, it has been computed, to repair the old fortifications, which are much decayed, and to erect new ones, would require an expence of two millions of French livres.

Mr. Dowie, who went to Paris, in order to have an interview with Mr. Fordyce, to perſuade him to return and appear to the commiſſion, is come back to town; but has not, after the moſt ſtrict enquiry, been able to find him: He ſaw one of Mr. Fordyce's old ſervants at Paris, who ſaid that he was diſmiſſed from his maſter's ſervice, and he believed he was gone for Italy.——

[Perhaps to ſupply the Chevalier Charles Stuart with a Sum of Money.]

It is the opinion of moſt judicious people, that in caſe of a rupture with France or Spain, a certain power will join them. This conjecture is founded on their preſent manner of proceeding to the Britiſh ſubjects now among them.

Whether Lord Chatham will, or will not, enter, as many imagine, on an active part in the Adminiſtration the enſuing winter, is ſomewhat doubtful; but many aſſert, it is certain that his Lordſhip has recently taken ſeveral ſteps, and been engaged in divers interviews which can be no otherwiſe interpreted than agreeable to the wiſhes of the public.

The falling out of rogues, ſays the proverb, is the means by which honeſt men obtain their own: Thus we frequently find the intereſted contentions of Miniſters effecting more than all the petitions of the people, and producing ſuch changes in public appointments as could never be brought about by any other operation.

A Legiſlator (not a Lawyer) obſerves, that the Frederic Code, planned by his Pruſſian Majeſty, and eſtabliſhed throughout his dominions, gave riſe to the Caroline code at Naples, the Tereſian code at Vienna, the Auguſtan code in Saxony, with that lately publiſhed at Peterſbourgh. Can ſuch a genius delight in war, ravage, and blood, who is ſo well acquainted with the charms and uſe of peace?

It is very remarkable, that the three courts of France, Spain, and England, ſhould, inſtead of following the example of their anceſtors, politely debate their political points. For example: France claims the Spice-Iſlands, but waits till his Catholic brother's fleet be ready to embark on the ſame enterprize, and Spain, with infinite kindneſs, attends the motions of Great-Britain, and Great-Britain of Spain, that no cauſe of umbrage may ariſe to either party.

The Spice-Iſlands are now the grand objects, it is imagined, of miniſterial conſideration, but as they are beheld with wiſhful eyes by ſo many other powers, Query whether we muſt not pay a price for them beyond their value, if fortune were even at laſt to declare in our favour?

As it is one great article in the political creed, that a nation is ſecure in proportion to its debts, Query, ſays a correſpondent, upon the ſame principle, may not the Royal houſhold be under better reputation for the long arrears which numbers of the domeſticks vainly ſigh for, than if they were permitted to receive the wages of their induſtry according to vulgar modes of œconomy.

On Thurſday laſt the Right Hon. Sir Joſeph Yorke took leave of his Majeſty, and this morning ſet out on his Embaſſy for Holland.

Yeſterday his Excellency the Ruſſian Ambaſſador, attended by Lord Rochford, went to Kew, where he had the honour of a long conference with his Majeſty.

A perſon in a public ſtation ſays, that the affairs of North-America are likely to furniſh ſufficient matter for ſerious reflection during the receſs of Parliament.

Two regiments of Highlanders are ſhortly to be raiſed in Scotland, intended for gariſon duty in North-America.

Orders are ſent to Ireland for a ſtop to be put to the exportation of ſalt proviſions to the Spaniſh iſlands in the Weſt-Indies.

Monday laſt arrived at Spithead, his Majeſty's bark Endeavour, Lieut. James Gordon, commander, from the Falkland-iſlands. She left England December 5, 1771. Thus ſhe was not quite eight months going and coming, which is the quickeſt paſſage ever known.

The above ſhip is the ſame in which Dr. Solander and Mr. Banks ſailed round the world, which diſproves the accounts lately inſerted in the papers, that the aforeſaid gentlemen were ſailed again in the Endeavour, whereas they are on board the St. Lawrence, Captain James Hunter, with intent to ſail round Great-Britain, Ireland, and all the Weſtern and Northern iſlands.

Bets of three to one are depending, that the Earl of Hillſborough will not remain ſecretary of ſtate for the Colonies eight months longer.

They write from Minorca, that that iſland had doubled the number its inhabitants ſince the laſt acceſſion to to the Britiſh crown.

The ſeizures that have been made by his Majeſty's cutters, ſince January laſt, amount to the ſum of 94,000l. 15s. 3½d.

VIENNA (Germany) July 22. M. De Saldern, the Ruſſian Ambaſſador at Warſaw, having diſapproved of the conduct of General Suwarow in relation to Tyniec, the latter has received orders to retire with his troops to Cracow, and to leave the Auſtrians in poſſeſſion of that fortreſs.

The military preparations going on here, are as great as if we were at the eve of a war. All the regiments are in motion, and wait only the laſt orders to know on which ſide they are to march.

BERLIN (Pruſſia) July 18. We expect here ſoon the Hereditary Prince of Brunſwick, who is to accompany his Majeſty to Sileſia.
